

Job Title: Manufacturing Technician I, II, III (Dental)

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Performs functions associated with all dental manufacturing operations, assemble products by using a variety of specialized equipment, fixtures, work instructions and test equipment. Performs a series of operations to correctly produce/assemble/test dental devices and shipping as well as performing any rework. Responsible for meeting daily customer demand and production schedules while maintaining the highest quality standards at all times. Complete all manufacturing documentation. Contributes to a safe and secure environment for co-workers by following established standards and procedures; complying with legal regulations. The Manufacturing Technician works well as part of a team and with engineers in conducting dental manufacturing. Work with Manufacturing Manager to ensure customer demand and the production schedules are met. Complete all employee training to ensure that procedures are followed and meet all quality requirements. Use basic problem-solving skills to ensure stable operation of the work cell. Report problems or concerns with quality, processes, equipment, materials and labor to Operations Manager. Identify and support continuous improvement efforts with Operations Manager. Participate as an active member of the production team and assist in product processing. Follow documented policies and procedures as designated by the company's Quality System. Follow detailed production/assembly/testing instructions, processes and procedures. Complete required documentation relating to regulatory requirements. Maintains a clean and organized work area to facilitate manufacturing functions.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Dental device manufacturing experience preferred.
- Maintains the highest quality standards and organizational skills.
- Ability to interpret, follow and promote the quality policy of the organization as an operating guideline.
- Ability to work within established guidelines and standard operating procedures.
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a team.
- Perform testing and record data per written procedures and verbal instructions.
- Ability to read and interpret documents such as safety rules, operating procedures, and maintenance instructions.
- Ability to communicate effectively through oral and written communications.
- Ability to work with others collaboratively.
- Ability to analyze and solve problems.

EDUCATION/EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:

- High school diploma required; AA/AS technical degree or equivalent experience in a technical field preferred.
- Experience with Dental device manufacturing preferred.
- Experience on a manufacturing line and working with various equipment types preferred.

This posting is for the Manufacturing Center in Memphis, TN. There will be no relocation accommodations. If interested in a position, please submit your resume to uLab-HR@ulabsystems.com